REPRESENTING SOUTHERN OREGON

A LETTER TO POTENTIAL SPONSORS

Fashion has an extraordinary ability to narrate stories even before a single word is spoken.

My name is Stephanie Harford, a fashion designer originally from a small town in California who now proudly calls Southern Oregon home for over 8 years. Since 2022, I have pursued fashion design full-time, teaching myself every step of the process—from sketching and pattern making to sewing and garment construction. In the beginning, I worked with thrifted fabrics and any materials I could find, believing that creativity isn't defined by what you have, but by what you're willing to create with it. Those early experiences shaped both my craftsmanship and my determination to continue growing as a self-taught fashion designer.

I'm honored to have the opportunity to present my 7-look collection, Made to Be Known, at New York Fashion Week with Runway 7 in February 2027.

As an independent dressmaker and stay-at-home mom, every gown is thoughtfully designed and handcrafted from my home studio. This collection will represent months of creativity, craftsmanship, and dedication, and it's an opportunity to represent Southern Oregon as well as stay-at-home moms on one of fashion's most recognized stages.

By becoming a sponsor, you're investing in more than a runway show—you're supporting a growing creative mother, local talent, and the story behind every piece. Throughout the journey, I'll be sharing the creation of the collection with my audience across YouTube and social media, providing sponsors with meaningful recognition along the way.

Thank you for considering this partnership.
I would be honored to represent your business as we bring Stephanie Harford Designs to New York Fashion Week.
